

With a variety of spaces across multiple levels, Hinchcliff House is the ideal destination for your next event.

Hinchcliff House is one of Circular Quay's most historic buildings, previously a wool store dating back to the 1860s and has been respectfully and meticulously restored. It now houses multiple bar and restaurant experiences that aim to provide quality, generosity, comfort and enjoyment, and champion Australian produce, ingredients and products through a decidedly Italian lens.

HINCHCLIFF HOUSE

APOLLONIA

Apollonia is home to old-world romantic escapism through cocktails, drinks and good times. Housed in a Sicilian bandit's drinking den, it's a basement venue paying homage to Apollonia - the patroness of The Godfather novel. A history-laden subterranean site in the heart of Sydney, the bar boasts an extensive spirits list, flowing cocktails and a rambunctious attitude. This venue offers fun, excitement and escapism with its underground Italian scene.

Lana

Lana is Hinchcliff House's elevated, yet relaxed, restaurant on the first floor. In a dining room where the music's a touch louder and the lights a little lower, special attention is paid to making it feel as though nothing exists outside of the room. The colourful and energetic space adapts well to all celebrations, as does the seasonally driven menu that will be curated to your needs and still highlight the freshest local produce.

Valais

Seated 46PAX

This space can host up to 46 guests seated with low table and high table seating. The area can be used for several styles of functions including canapé, grazing and sit down. With our marble bar and positioned DJ, Valais will tick a box for all functions.
